Camp Royall

Located in Moncure North Carolina, Camp Royall is the nation's oldest and largest camp for people with autism. It's a place where campers build skills and make friends in a loving environment. It's a hub of year round activity that offers a caring, accepting atmosphere and celebrates each individual. The 133-acre camp near Pittsboro serves thousands of people each year. Camp Royall provides typical camp activities, including swimming, arts and crafts, hiking, hayrides, and boating. All activities take place in a structured environment to meet the needs of individuals with autism. Our staff is professionally trained to guide campers through all activities. Participants show increases in confidence, independence and a willingness to try new things. Our programs also provide needed respite for families and peace of mind that their loved one is in a safe and loving environment. Camp Royall offers residential and day camp. Year-round programs include Family Fun Days, Family Camping, Mini Camps, Adult Retreats, Residential Camps and Day Camps during school breaks, Teen Retreats and Teen Tuesday (social groups for teens).
