

My Parents are Getting Divorced

I have lived with both of my parents for a long time.

Things are changing in my family. My parents are getting divorced. This means that they will not be married anymore.

But we will still be a family!
My _____ will be moving to a new house.

Both of my parents still love me!
Sometimes I will be with my mom.
And that will be fun!
Sometimes I will be with my dad.
And that will be fun too!

I will get to have special times with my mom and my dad.

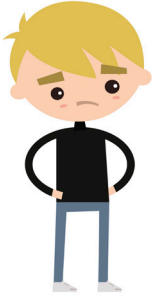

Even though now I will have two houses, we will still be a family.

My Parents are Getting Divorced

This might make me sad.

My family is different now,
and that is okay!

It is okay to be sad.

I will still get a lot of family time!

I can ask my parents questions if I want.

Things will be okay.

I can talk with my parents about my feelings.
I did not do anything wrong.

My family loves me!
