Bullying can happen anywhere including school, the neighborhood, at a job, or other places.

A bully is someone who tries to make a person feel sad, embarrassed, angry, and scared.

Bullying can happen in a lot of different ways. Some bullies tease and make fun of a person.

They might do this in front of the person.

A bully can be a kid or an adult.

They might do it by texting, by phone, or on the internet.

Bullies hurt a person by pushing, hitting, or other actions.

Some bullies make a person feel left out of the group. They do this on purpose.

A bully is not a friend.
